STEAL THE SPOTLIGHT

Stow away your stole. The hottest look this holiday season is flaunting luminous skin. Countless celebrities rely on Tracie Martyn's divine antiaging treatments for all of their red-carpet appearances. John Galliano calls her signature Resculpting Facial (starting at $287) "the haute couture of all treatments." The luxurious Bombay-chic decorated salon offers the purest formulations and cutting-edge technology, creating a youthful, radiant glow. Martyn's trinity of cult products (starting at $65)—the Amla Purifying Cleanser, Enzyme Exfoliant, and Firming Serum—are your passport to gorgeous skin. And even your figure gets fine-tuned with Martyn's famed Resculpting Body Treatment ($200), which lifts the posterior and firms the thighs into a slimmer silhouette. From full-frontal to rear-view, Martyn makes the face and body ravishing at any angle. Tracie Martyn, 59 Fifth Avenue, 212-206-9333—TESS GHILAGA
