PUBLIC EYE: Ahh, under-eye bags. Whether they're from late-night partying, filming, or sitting on the couch crying during Extreme Makeover: Home Edition, we all get them. Even, gasp! Brad Pitt. When his peepers get puffy, he, along with Madonna and Renée Zellweger, use Tracie Martyn's LouSculpt Eyepads and Activator to lighten dark circles under the eyes. Voila! Pitt is camera-ready and the rest of us can deny sobbing with Ty Pennington.
